

5 QUESTIONS with the FACULTY

“Five Questions with the Faculty” is a light-hearted look at the teaching staff at Lakeside Lutheran. This edition features Mr. Nathan Koerber, who joined the faculty in 2013. He teaches three of the four levels of Spanish (I, III & IV) and coaches soccer and baseball.

Here are some other things you may—or may not—know about Mr. Koerber:

He and his wife, Sarah, enjoy their toddler, Cecily, born in March 2017. They are members at St. Paul, Fort Atkinson, where Sarah also works part-time as an Afternoon Preschool Aide at St. Paul School.

What is your favorite thing to do on a Saturday?

I enjoy building and fixing electronics. Saturday is a great day to do that sort of stuff. I also make sure I spend as much time as I can with my daughter.

---

When you're at your fave restaurant, what do you order?

I'm at Soga Soga Shabu Shabu in Madison, where I order Chinese hot pot with various meats and vegetables. (Did you know? Nathan and Sarah taught in China before he came to LLHS.)

What is your favorite book of all time?

Great by Choice by Jim Collins.

What's one of your most humorous moments at LLHS?

The Dabumentary. (For those who are not aware of “the dab” or Mr. Koerber’s part in this pop culture trend, surf over to an amusing LLHS YouTube video here: youtu.be/tAw339g8D7A)

What's one of the most heartwarming moments of your time at LLHS?

Graduates crying in front of me on graduation day.
