

PIANO LESSONS 2018-2019

Teacher: Mrs. Eternick

Time: Lessons will be held during a school day at a time that is not disruptive to the student's learning. Lessons are individual and 30 minutes in length. Must be first grade or older.

Cost:

- Fees are due on the first lesson day of the month. A note will be sent home at the end of each month with the amount that is due. This will depend on how many lessons are in each month.
- Fees will be $13.00 per lesson.
- There will be a one-time $10.00 music fee per student that will be paid at the beginning of the year. This money would go towards any additional music and books that the children may use instead of purchasing them. This music library may be used by any piano student. It will also have other things in it such as musical flashcards, games, and copying materials.
- If student is unable to attend a lesson, the lesson cost will not be reimbursed.
- If teacher cancels lesson or lesson is cancelled due to bad weather, the teacher will be responsible for rescheduling the lesson.

Lesson Books: Families are responsible for covering costs of lesson books. Teacher will purchase the appropriate books for the students and families will reimburse teacher.

- Using Faber & Faber piano lesson series
- Students will get 3 books: Lesson book, Performance book, and an Exercise Drill book.
- Cost is around $6-$7 per book

Practice: Students must have a piano or keyboard at home for practicing. A full size keyboard is ideal. (White House of Music in Watertown has good rates for keyboard rental and you can also rent to buy.) Practicing is essential for your child to keep advancing.

Performances: Throughout the year, the students will have opportunities to showcase what they have learned and to use their talents to give glory to God. This includes playing for church, concerts, and Fine Arts Fair (students in grades 5-8).

I'm looking forward to working with your child. Playing the piano instills many life-long skills, while also appreciating the blessing of music which God has given to us. Please contact me with further questions.
